v.

KURBY DUMORNAY

INTERIM STATUS REPORT

June 29, 2005

DEIN, M.J.

An Interim Status Conference was held before this court on Wednesday, June 29, 2005, pursuant to the provisions of Local Rule 116.5(A). Based on that conference, this court enters the following report and orders, to wit:

1. A hearing on the defendant's motion to compel was held today. The defendant will file a supplemental memorandum in support of the motion by July 15, 2005.
2. The defendant has requested expert discovery prior to trial pursuant to Fed. R. Crim. P. 16(a)(1)(E). The government shall make its expert witness disclosures no less than thirty (30) days before the scheduled trial date. The defendant shall make reciprocal disclosures no later than fourteen (14) days before trial.
3. Following the resolution of the pending motion to compel, the defendant will determine whether additional discovery is required.
4. In this court's view, this is not a case involving unusual or complex issues for which an early joint conference of the district judge and the magistrate judge with counsel of record would be useful.

5. In this court's view, this is not a case involving features which would warrant special attention or modification of the standard schedule, except as provided herein.
6. It is too early to determine whether a trial will be necessary.
7. This court finds and concludes, pursuant to the provisions of 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(8) and Section 6(b)(8) of the Plan for Prompt Disposition of Criminal Cases in the United States District Court for the District of Massachusetts (Statement of Time Limits Adopted by the Court and Procedures for Implementing Them, Effective July 1, 1980), that the interests of justice, i.e., review of the case, review of evidence, consideration of alternatives concerning how best to proceed with this matter, and preparation of motions, outweighs the best interests of the public and the defendant for a trial within seventy days of the return of an indictment.

Accordingly, it is hereby ordered that, pursuant to the provisions of 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(8) and Section 6(b)(8) of the Plan for Prompt Disposition of Criminal Cases in the United States District Court for the District of Massachusetts (Statement of Time Limits Adopted by the Court and Procedures for Implementing Them, Effective July 1, 1980), the Clerk of this Court enter excludable time for the period of July 16, 2005 through August 16, 2005, that being the period between the expiration of the last order on excludable time and the Final Status Conference.¹

8. Based upon the prior orders of the court dated December 3, 2004, January 13, 2005, March 11, 2005, May 16, 2005 and the order entered contemporaneously herewith, at the time of the Final Status Conference on August 16, 2005, there will be thirteen (13) days of non-excludable time under the Speedy Trial Act (December 31, 2004 - January 12, 2005)

and fifty-seven (57) days will remain under the Speedy Trial Act in which this case must be tried.

9. A Final Status Conference has been scheduled for August 16, 2005 at 2:30 p.m. Counsel for the respective parties shall file a Joint Memorandum addressing the matters set forth in LR 116.5(C)(1) through (9) before the close of business no less than THREE business days prior to that Status Conference. In addition, the parties shall include in the Joint Memorandum not only the periods of excludable time that are applicable, but also the amount of time remaining under the Speedy Trial Act before trial must commence, as well as the total amount of time which has been excluded.
